San Luis Trust Bank Donates to Support Local Youth Sports
$80,000 goes toward field construction at Mission Preparatory High School

SAN LUIS OBISPO, CA – San Luis Trust Bank has gone beyond banking to help support the community. On August 17, 2007 the bank donated $40,000 to Mission College Preparatory High School for use in the installation of sod, irrigation, drainage and fencing for the new multi-use sports field. “San Luis Trust Bank is continually looking for ways to give back to the community and we are proud to be able to assist Mission School in upgrading its facilities,” commented Bank President and CEO Brad Lyon.

Lyon carries on a long-standing family tradition at SLTB. His father Lynn Lyon was the founding Chairman and CEO of the bank for several years. After his passing, the four Lyon children established the Lynn W. Lyon Foundation to foster local educational and athletic endeavors. The Foundation donated an additional $40,000 to Mission School.

San Luis Trust Bank is a $255 million single branch community bank located in San Luis Obispo, CA, serving the banking needs of businesses and individuals countywide since 1999. As a key resource for the economic growth and vitality of San Luis Obispo County, in addition, San Luis Trust Bank directors, management and employees are committed to community support both financially and through volunteerism.
